Dear Dr. Sondermann:

Mr. Dulles has asked me to acknowledge and thank you for your letter of July 24 requesting his permission to quote certain portions of the address he gave on April 28, 1958, to the U. S. Chamber of Commerce at Washington, D. C.

I am attaching the authorization which you enclosed with your letter properly executed by Mr. Dulles. You will note that he has specified under "Conditions" that a footnote in your forthcoming book shall identify the quoted portions of his speech as being excerpts from an address delivered by him on April 28, 1958, at Washington, D. C. before the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

Sincerely,

Hon. Allen W. Dulles,
Central Intelligence Agency,
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Along with two colleagues, Professors William C. Olson (Pomona College) and David S. McLellan (University of California, Riverside), I am preparing a book on The Theory and Practice of International Relations: Commentary and Readings. This book is scheduled to be published next spring. There is a widespread feeling that the field of International Relations is in need of a new collection of the best thought on the subject, and we have endeavored diligently to search the literature of the past decade in an effort to fill that need.

One of the selections which we would like to use in our book is your address of April, 1958, to the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, entitled "Krushchev's Challenge." We would like to use approximately 7 pages of this address. You may be assured that we shall be most careful and responsible not to take passages out of context in such a way as to alter the meaning.

May we have your permission to use this selection for our book? Your prompt answer will be greatly appreciated. For your convenience, I enclose an appropriate authorization form and a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely yours,

Fred A. Sondermann
